Mr. Oleg O. Demidov
Deputy Director
Department of State Policy in Civil Aviation
Ministry of Transport of the Russian Federation

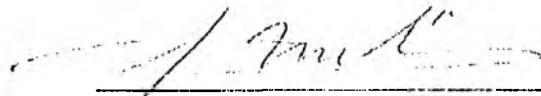

Dear Mr. Demidov,

Thank you for your letter dated 24 December 2012 concerning the code share agreement between Japan Airlines (JAL) and Siberia Airlines (S7).

I would like to inform you that we have received the application from JAL and S7, and are in the process of approval of the code-share operations between those airlines, which will be granted after taking necessary procedures.

We believe the Russian Federation and Japan will continue a good co-operation and would like to enhance the aviation relationship between our two countries.

Sincerely yours,

Hiroshi Narahira
Assistant Vice Minister

Ministry of Transport of the Russian Federation

Dear Mr. Demidov,

Civil Aviation Bureau of Ministry of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism of Japan presents its compliments to the Department of State Policy in Civil Aviation of the Ministry of Transport of the Russian Federation and has the honor to inform that Japan Airlines Co., Ltd (JAL) as the designated airline of Japan has a plan to commence new services into Khabarovsk and Vladivostok from Narita as a marketing airline, under code-sharing arrangements with Siberia Airlines from 29 January 2013.

In accordance with Attachment C, ANNEX 1, sub-paragraph 1.(2) of the Record of Discussion (ROD) between the aeronautical authorities of the Russian Federation and Japan signed on 29 November 2011, I would like to inform you that Khabarovsk and Vladivostok has been specified as two (2) of the points out of "ten (10) points in the Russian Federation except Moscow to be specified later".

I trust that this expansion of services by operators of the Russian Federation and Japan will enhance the cooperation between our two authorities and strengthen economic ties between our two countries.

Sincerely yours,

Hiroshi Narahira
